THE FAMOUS DURON SUITE

Who Next?

Richmond is on its toes over the Sydnor & Hundley ad offering the famous "Duron" Bedroom Suite at little over factory cost. Unusual comment over the telephone and personally has proven beyond a doubt that our offer has attracted public attention. However, the unusual always happens when an unusual offering is made.

Grace S.

-in criticism of our recent advertisementvoices her thought in this way: "Can this be a Sydnor & Hundley ad? It reads like one of those cheap fake ads, and I know G. B. S. did not write it himself. I always enjoyed S. & H. truthful ads so much, and now they advertise cut prices on carpets, etc., and 'astounding prices' to only 18 people. Well, anyway, I'm not going to be one of the eighteen, and I heard several people say they were not going to be.

No Grace, I Didn't

Thank you very much for your criticism of the late ads which came in today's mail. I was in Chicago when Mr. Thomas prepared the ad. It is true, nevertheless, I did see the ad and allowed it to be published. The ad-man was waiting, and I did not have time to "blue pencil" the superlative and offensive words, "astounding prices."

But, I'm Telling You

-that these suites have unusual value-and I think I know what I'm saying. They are well made and have few equals. They have been carefully compared with other suites of similar type and leave Sydnor & Hundley with their stamp of approval.

Now, My Dear Grace-

-why won't you buy one of these suites? Why won't those several other people you mention buy them? If you will fetch them around and reveal your identity with an open mind, I believe one of the boys here will separate you from some of your money.

Now About Those Rugs-

If Mr. de Belle, our new Manager of the Carpet and Drapery Department, don't make good in his department with the "cut prices" you mention, just come right straight to the lower office and tell it all to-

Apologies to my Secretary.

Seeing Is Believing. We Leave It to You to Determine Whose Judgment Is Correct.
